By Kayla S., 1st gr.

I showed kindness to my friend. She was playing alone, and I asked her to play with me.

By Eduardo F., 7th gr.

I experienced kindness when I helped my friend in the homework we had. I saw that she was struggling with her homework, so I went to go ask her if she needed help.

A time someone was nice to me was when I needed help in swimming. I needed to learn a stroke, but I needed help, so she showed me how to do it.

I learned that if you're nice to someone, they will be nice to you.

By Layla S., 4th gr.

I experienced kindness and respect when my friend let me borrow her pencil. When I didn't have anyone to sit with me at lunch, she came and sat with me. And she let me borrow her eraser. When I didn't have anyone to play with me, she played with me. When I didn't have a folder, she gave me one. When I was bored, she told me a joke. When I'm stuck on a question, she helps me. When I did not have a friend, she made me feel at home and became my friend.

By Michelle F., 4th gr.

I have experienced kindness because once I was playing by myself with some friends, and these girls asked if they can play, and I said, "Yes."

His name is Ikart.

By A. Fuller, a father

While growing up I always wanted to do the right thing. During my primary school years, I went to church, and while in school I was always respectful to teachers, family, friends, and foes. However, during my formative years, the right thing to do was to be the most clever, sneaky, and often rebellious. I was average in hunger and basic in my actions. Next, in my life, I went to the military, college, and marriage, with, what now seems to me, secular ideas. I was an adult man-child with big dreams and shaky plans. Then, my mother died. It was unbearable, and Jesus was there with me through it all, and even now. He sits with me silently whenever I'm alone.

By Dorieana B., kindergarten

I am kind to my teacher. When Valentine's Day comes up, I give my teacher some hearts. When Christmas comes up, I make some art for her.

One day my cousin and I went to my grandma's house and my auntie was there, but sometimes she is not there. She usually goes home with her dad who lives in Indiana. But she was at home, so that that's when I asked my cousin, "Do you want to come over to my house?" Then he said, "OK." So then I asked my mom if we can go home. But she said, "In a couple of minutes." In a few minutes, my mom said, "Let's go!" So when we made it there, my cousin was there. We got up stairs and started doing back handsprings round-offs and back tucks.

My soccer team is called Manchester. We play at Chase Park on Saturday mornings. The players are 10 and 11 years old, boys and girls. Our uniform is green, but the number is black. Our coach's name is Rubio.

I play forward and defense. I like to play forward because I get to score during the season. I score 2 or 3 goals every game. When I play defense, I have to stay behind the middle, because the other defenders pass the middle line. I stay in the back because when the ball is out and it is their ball, the other team passes it to the back. I block the ball. Then I pass it to my team mates.

The Meeting Room at Epworth Church
It has white walls with five windows and gold curtains. There is a book shelf of the left side of the room. In the front of the room there are six tables. Each table has eight chairs. The back of the room has four tables, but no chairs. The back of the room also has two cabinets, a fire place, and a piano.

The Tutoring Room at the Library
When I walk inside the tutoring room I see two trash bins. If you look right, there are four light switches. But if you look left, there will be two curtains, but if you take off the curtain, there will be one window. Next to the windows there are 4 doors. On top of the doors there are four exit signs, but one has a clock. If you look all the way straight, you see two flags to the left. There is one fire extinguisher to the right of the flags. There are two white boards. To the right, there are 18 pictures, but there are 16 tables. Most tables have three chairs.
