PRESIDENT-ELECT DONALD TRUMP
From Students of Inspired Youth

INSPIRED YOUTH WRITING, Vol. 29, No. 2

Dear Donald Trump,

I feel you will start wars with other countries. Why do you talk bad about women? I was surprised how you won because you did lots of bad things and you did not pay taxes. Even though I don't like you, you are going to be my President and I am still going to have to deal with it. I hope you become better and make America great, not a disaster. Do not disunite the United States. Try to make it better, and no violence, because we kids hear things, not just grownups. Thank you for reading my letter, and don't forget the things I told you.

Sincerely Frankie F., 6th gr.

I was angry when Mr. Trump won. I think that everyone should come together as a community so we can get Mr. Trump out of the United States because he said he was going to do a lot of things. He said he was going to build a wall with Mexico with the United States, and he said all of the people are going to go to Africa and send us to go to Africa, and that is not a good idea to send us to African. That is a mean idea to do that.

By Dayveana A., 4th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I felt surprised when you won the election because Mrs. Clinton had more votes than you. This election has taught me that they picked a Republican with fewer votes over a Democrat that had more votes. I suggest you be nicer. I think you should stop being such a goofball because people from other places should come here for more opportunities and education. The other people from the other side are probably in poverty and want to come here. America doesn't care whether we have a racist President or not, they just want to have a better person, but I doubt America wants to be better again.

Sincerely, Josephine A., 9th gr.

Dear Donald Trump,

This is how to be a good President. You can start by listening to people and to not hate people.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I was surprised that you won the election. I was also made that you won. I was surprised because I didn't think the Electoral College would vote for you. I was angered because I didn't want you as President because I feel like you would be the 2016 Hitler and that America will be all messed up. I also think you should stop putting down women to make them feel weak or weaker than men. One more "suggestion" is that you shouldn't put down gays or transgender. I feel as if they are equal to us who aren't gay or transgender. They are different and they should have a right to be different. Sincerely yours, Angel W., 7th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I felt made and angry when I heard you were elected. I am mad and angry because I hate you. I hate you because you called ladies pigs. Your factory makes me feel like I want a different President. When you are President you should stop calling ladies pigs. You should not build a wall between the U.S.A. and Mexico. You need to stop hating people from Mexico. Muslims should be treated fairly and be allowed to come into the U.S.

Truthfully, David C., 1st gr.

Dear President Trump,

Some people didn't want you to win. I think you're nice. Do you eat? Do you read? Do you have a dog? You have 5 kids. Will you please make a law against robbing children?

From Bianca (Preschool) and Linnea

Dear Donald Trump,

I would like to congratulate you on your Presidential win. But I felt threatened by your policy on immigration. I admit you were right about politicians being corrupt. But we the people have a voice. This country was built by immigrants. But your win is fair. My suggestion is to hold off mass deportations and to stop going to the past and head to a better future for the people of the United States of America. Make America great again. Kevin A., 11th gr.

Dear Donald Trump,

I hope that you make the world a better place. I don't think you're very nice. I was shocked when I found out the results of the election! I think America is hoping you will change. Please don't build a wall. My family is from Mexico. Please give a home to the homeless people. Thank you!

From Layla S., 1st gr.

Dear Donald Trump,

When we learned the results of the election we were both angry and happy. In the future more persuasive and impacting speeches would make us happy. We don't think the country will come together as one united nation. This election has taught us how America has made bad decisions in electing you. In the future please do not make rude remarks towards other people. Many people do not like you, just like Sasha's granddad. Thank you. Lindsay, Ashley, and Sasha

Dear Mr. Trump,

When I found out that you won the election, I felt angry. I felt this way because of the negativity towards women. I think you'll have a negative effect on immigration. I believe this because there are many immigrants in the U.S. who have been offended. Sincerely, Esthefany F. 7th gr.

Dear Donald Trump,

I congratulate you on your win. But I feel nervous because of your win. I felt sad because I voted for Hillary.

Jason R.

Dear Mr. Trump:

When I received the results of the 2016 Presidential election I was surprised. I was surprised because all the polls pointed to a Democratic victory. I believe that having you as President may help bring some Americans together, but it will split others apart. If you want to be a good President, you should not build a wall between the United States and Mexico. Most Americans don't understand why you want to build a wall. Maybe if you explained your reasoning more in depth more people would agree with you.

Sincerely, Rory and Melissa

Dear Donald Trump,

When we heard you were our new President, we were surprised. We thought that Hillary would win. We think that you need to be nice to Mexicans. You should do this because my family is Mexican and my family members live in Mexico, so they wouldn't be able to come in if they want to live here. Also, don't be mean to Hillary Clinton, so you can be friends. Also, don't make a war because a lot of people will die if you do. You should let immigrants into our country. Do this because they need somewhere to live. Also, let poor people live in a good house. They deserve it. Lastly, don't make a wall between Mexico and the United States. Don't do this because for me it feels sad because I don't like my family to miss me.

Sincerely, Yaritza and Catherine

Dear Donald Trump,

I am surprised because you won. I want you to be nice. You can take me to Mexico. You can bring me some surprise, some iPods. You can bring me some candy. Donald Trump can bring me a computer. I love you, Donald Trump, too much.

From Berenice, 2nd gr.

Dear Donald Trump,

I am surprised because I thought that Hillary was going to win. Please don't make a wall. Please don't start war. Please stop being mean to people. I don't want them to be sad. Please don't let people have guns because that makes me scared. You could give hugs to people; You could not like but tell the truth.

From Sophie and Nely

Dear Mr. Trump,

You better not do bad things. I am made that you won. I think that Hillary should be President next time! I think smoking should be illegal.

From Ola and Tianyi

Dear Mr. Trump,

I hope that you can help the people of America. I hope that you will be accepting of everyone.

From Donovan

Dear Mr. Trump,

We were angry because I think you are racist and mean and cruel. We think you should be nicer and believe all people are equal. You shouldn't send people away just because of the cultures and background. Everyone was talking about the election, and we are sad and angry that Trump won. We knew he was going to win, and they said it was over when he won. We think you should promote being kind and nice.

From Emily and Re-re

Dear Mr. Trump,

My family is from Europe. They only come once in a while. I was angry when you won the election. I have a suggestion to make America greater. Send out people to clean out all litter in America to make America clean and great. I hope you make America great.

From Hana, 4th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

You won the election. Now I'm sad. It is very upsetting that you won when Hillary had 261 delegates and you had 204. You shouldn't build the wall you said you would.

From the Fuller brothers

Dear President-elect Trump,

When you won the election I felt angry. I was angry because I don't think you will be a good President. I think you should not send people away because of their religion. To help, I can begin by believing in my country. Trump's winning is not something I really am not happy about. From the beginning I didn't think you would win. But I hope you will change.

Sincerely, Phyllis, 4th gr.

Dear President-Elect Trump,

Do not build the wall. Do not send Mexicans back to Mexico. You can be good.

Dennis, 4th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

Please be nice/good. Get the U.S. out of debt. Do not build the wall. Do not put good guys in jail. Put all bad guys in jail.

Diego. 3rd gr.

Dear President-Elect Trump,

When I found out Donald Trump was elected for President, I was shocked and angry because I didn't want him to win because he is racist. I think the country will be divided for a long time, and President-Elect Trump will not be able to stop it. We as citizens have to try to stop being angry. We have to accept it. But we are still angry, and Trump's comments are not exactly helpful in this regard. As a President, you should respect every race. I believe that you also should be more respectful towards women, and respectful of all religions.

Sincerely, John and Nathan

Dear Mr. Trump:

I really didn't care that you won. Your victory means violence in the U.S.A. Some schools are bullying kids that like you, sir. I think you separated the U.S. because people are killing other people because of you. Don't take Obama Care away. You will affect people's life by taking it away.

Sincerely, Fernando

Dear Mr. Trump,

When I learned the results for the election I was angry because I wanted Hillary Clinton to win.

To be a better President you can help to improve the environment by purifying the water and cleaning up the oceans.

Dear Mr. Trump:

I was sad when you won. Why are you sending Mexicans back? Please don't build a wall. It will waste money. Why do you hate Mexicans so much? I hate the wall. So you just wanted to be Pres. To send Mexicans away. You're just wasting money. They might kick you out as Pres. Larry, 4th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I felt disappointed when you won because you talk about women badly. We think you should stop talking badly about women. How do you think your wife would feel if she heard you talking like that to her? The election taught me that people clearly want a President that is racist, disrespectful and rude to everyone. It is hard to understand.

Sincerely yours, Meg, Sean, and Dayveana

Dear Mr. Trump,

My friend Carlos is scared because he does not like your ideas. Carlos wanted Hilary Clinton to be President instead of you. Mr. Trump should be nice to immigrants and make more parks.

Dear Donald Trump,

You are a cheese. Give your job to Hillary Clinton. I feel angry. You look like a pumpkin.

From Raul, 1st gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I was very angry when you won the Presidential election. I don't like your attitude, and you're very disrespectful to Hillary. You're always talking over her when she's trying to talk. I was surprised when you won President because I thought lots of people hated you. It's really sad that you want to build a wall in Mexico. You're making it more violent in the United States. You're pushing people apart. I watched the purge election year movie. It's about you and Hillary running for President. If you win, the purge goes on, and if you lose, the purge stops. I will be very grateful if you be nice and respectful to Hillary and people

Channie Brianna, 6th gr.

Dear Mr. Trump,

I was surprised when I learned you were elected President. I want Hillary Clinton to be President. I wish Hillary could rule the world. I don't want you to be President because you deport people. I suggest that as President, you don't deport people. If you would have been nicer and let people stay here, I would've liked you and not Hillary. As the President, you should care more about people and what they say. If Hillary Clinton would have been President, I would have been super proud because she isn't rude to people; she is nice t people.

Signed, Zakiyya, 1st gr.

P.S. Make sure you're really nice!

Dear Donald Trump,

I was scared when you were elected President because I thought you were going to take our money, take their money. I was sad. My family felt made and angry. As President you should be nice and make people happy.

Dear Donald Trump,

When we found out that you were going to be President, we felt very angry and upset. That's because we do not agree with a lot of the things you say. We are also nervous, because we feel that you might be mean to different groups of people.

When you become President, that impacts my family, because my family has many immigrants and you might send my family and friends away. When you become President, there might more violence because sometimes you say and do hurtful things.

This election has been very controversial. The Hillary Clinton supporters might unite after the election. It will be hard for the Hillary supporters and Donald supporters to agree.

When you're the President, you should say nice things and respect everybody. Also, be happy and make America better. Also, clean the dirty oceans.

Sincerely, Marilu and Lucy
