By Larry and Jax

One morning I woke up and I went to brush my teeth. Then I stared at the mirror in horror. I saw a big clown in the mirror. I thought it was a different person, but it was me. I looked. I washed my face. Then I took a shower. Then I was free.

By Jiy' Auana, Maeve, and Isabella

I dried off from the shower, looking back into the mirror and saw to my horror a skeleton looking back at me! Then I think, "How am I going to live with this!" Then my little brother walked in and screamed in such fright I said to him, "Brandon, don't run away. It's me, your sister."

By Mya, Lindsay, and Cleo

And then the skeleton walked out of the mirror. "Ahhhhhhhh," they both screamed. They ran for their lives. Then they ran into a graveyard. Then a zombie killed her brother. She can't go back home, so she kept walking.

The hand burst up out of the soil, fingers twitching as they touched air for the first time in decades.

By Jovanny and Dylan

Henry and Jack were playing catch at a park nearby. They stopped when they heard a strange creaking coming from the graveyard next to the park. They decided to go and investigate. As soon as they got there they saw something weird coming up from the ground. They got closer, until a hand burst up out of the soil.

The hand was green and bloody. The hand popped out of the ground and started running towards Henry and Jack. The hand ran up Henry's leg and started dancing on his head.

By Miguel, Benor, and Matt

Henry told Jack to run and he would deal with the zombie. As Jack was running, he saw something that was glowing. As he got closer he saw a wizard standing still. Jack saw him and heard the wizard say, "You are the chosen one, Jack Smith." The wizard got into Jack's body.

...a leprechaun. The leprechaun jumped out of the TV. I am at my friend's house. Their parents are not there. The leprechaun looked like an old man that is wearing green, a lot of green. The leprechaun was evil, but my friend had his golden coin. The leprechaun was trying to kill me and my friend. The leprechaun's power did not work because my friend had his golden coin in his hand.

By Miguel and Benor

Then the leprechaun used his teleportation powers and stabbed my friend in the back. But my friend turned around and started reading a spell book. As he read, the leprechaun started to cover his ears. The spell was trying to make the leprechaun turn into ashes and trying to make his soul rest in peace.

By Kimora and Maya

And then the leprechaun blew up. His green guts went everywhere. We were happy and disgusted. So then we had to go to the hospital and go to the end of the rainbow. Then we went to go eat food.

Once upon a time a lady was cooking soup and she saw a hand twitching out of the soup, and the lady was screaming as she saw a vampire.

By Jovanny and Dylan

The vampire turned into a bat and flew away. A few minutes later the vampire returned. He was ready to bite the lady. She grabbed a knife and tried to stab the vampire, but he was too fast.

By Cherish and Emily

He couldn't catch her. The vampire then bit her. Then she started biting people herself. (PS. Don't eat soup or you might become a vampire, too.)

I pressed the button on the remote again and again, but it was no use. The TV just wouldn't turn off. And there was the face on the screen again, crying out to me. The face of ...

...the face of the clown. I remember the clown from the newspaper. He took all the money and all the cars.

By Ethan and Frankie

"I am going to kill you," said the clown in a funny voice. I kept on trying to turn it off, but I couldn't. I hear a click on the door. I ran to it, but it was locked. All of a sudden everything goes black, but not the TV. The clown popped out of the TV and I started running. I ran into my bedroom and locked it, but the clown banged it with an ax.

By John and Nathan

The clown broke through the door with a loud splintering sound. I tried to run but there was nowhere to go. I struggled and kicked, but the clown managed to bury his ax in my head, killing me instantly.

... an invisible girl! I only can see my shadow. I ran out of the house, ready to scare people. I go to my mean neighbor. I touched her and yelled, "Boo!" The neighbor screamed and ran away. I laughed but then I felt a tap on my shoulder. I looked back, but no one was there.

I got freaked out. I tried to find who it was, but I couldn't. I ran home, but I realized that the whole house was trashed. Then I heard something upstairs. I went upstairs to see what it was. It was a vampire. I saw the vampire, but it did not see me. Then my invisible self became visible. The vampire saw me and went over to me.

By Dylan and Jovanny

Then he stepped to the light of a window and started melting.

The hand burst up out of the soil, fingers twitching as they touched air for the first time in decades.

By Carlos and Alice

The entire hand is going to come out, and then the other hand, then the face. It was a scary clown with blood in his face, and it had a knife and a gun and a machete. The first clown was in the back yard. Then there was another clown inside the house. It had an ax, and they wanted the gold of the person in the house.

The scary clown attacked me, and me and my friend and will run from the clown. One of the clowns tried to catch us, but we were too fast. The scary clown tripped on a rock. The other clown jumped out from a tree.

By Melissa and Zara

We were trapped. There was one clown in front of us and a clown in the back of us. We had no way out. There was a giant rock which fell from the sky, and crashed on one of the clowns, and we ran that way as the other clown screamed in rage that we got away.

...Matt, the dreaded clown that's been terrorizing our city for over a month now. He had horrific white make-up, a big red nose, and a gushy mouth. He was also bald. Then my TV shut down and turned off. Next thing I knew the lights were flickering. Then there was a knock on my door, and I could hear the horrific laughter.

By Dennis and Mattea

The clown broke the door with an ax. I ran away upstairs. I did not know where to run. Matt the clown thought I jumped out the second floor. I saw 10 more clowns that had a battle ax. All the other clowns had axes. The roommate was killed by a clown.

By Kimora and Maya

I go to sleep, but the clown thinks I am dead. For some reason he left me alone. Ten people live, but all the people died with a heart attack, and some of the clowns killed them, too.

...a clown. It was yelling out, "Someone is coming for you." At first I thought it was silly, but soon I heard a knock on the door. I silently walked toward the door, shaking. Then I looked through the peep-hole and was shocked to see a giant clown. Then I ran to my room and locked everything.

By Niamh, Annie, and Taylor

I climbed out the window, falling down and down all the way to the ground. But I didn't hit the ground. Instead, I was frozen in the air. I looked around and saw the clown holding his hand out like a policeman holding back traffic.

By Amanda and Rosalinda

I will run for my life! I hop in my car and drive off to another city.

...clown. She screamed so loud her reflection said, "Be quiet." The hot California air made my clown hair stick in the air. "I can't go to school like this. My friends will be scared." So she did not go to school.

By John and Nathan

I hid, but in my loneliness it got worse. I started to feel like a clown as well. I tried to resist but it was too strong. Suddenly I snapped. I grabbed a kitchen knife and went out on the streets.

And then I saw the clown. It was the same one that bit me. My leg was hurting so bad I couldn't move my leg at all. The clown crept up on me. Then I screamed and stabbed him in his cool heart.

A night before Halloween, on October 30, 1996, I got lost alone with nobody in sight. I kept walking and walking and there was a dead end. The only place there was a graveyard. I kept on walking in circles and in circles, but I couldn't find the exit. I kept on hearing laughing. I turned around, but nobody was there. I was trying to use my phone but there was no signal.

By Maya, Cleo, and Lindsey

There was a dead skeleton following her. "Ahhhhhh!" she screamed. "I am going to die." The skeleton was holding a knife and a crank saw. The girl ran for her life. The skeleton is still following her. The girl got bit by another zombie. She fainted. She looked like she was dead, so they took her to their master, and in prison she woke up.

A cop came with a SWAT team, 10 SWATs, but one cop came to kill the zombie. The skeletons ran out, but a car ran them over. The big zombie killed 9 SWATs and the cop killed the big zombie. I drove the girl to a hospital.

I froze. Roberto slowly walked to the door. I heard screeching at the door. I pulled the door open, and it was Chucky! I ran, and he chased after me, saying, "I am coming for you!" I screamed as loud as I could.

I kept on running. Chucky had a knife chasing me. I went to one place. He was already there. I tried to take the knife away from him, but I couldn't. Chucky got mad. He hit him in the stomach. Chucky grabbed the knife and cut his stomach open and his head off. He was using it as a soccer ball.

By Jah’lil and Mila

The cat was wearing a funny hat and a funny shirt. He had mice in his hat.

By Bubulina, Caroline, and Eleanor

The mouse was tickling it so much, that he peed in his proverbial cat-pants. There was an acidic stain(4 on the floor. One day, a man named Joe slipped on the puddle, and it came alive. It was bright yellow, and moved in a slushy way as it moved toward its poor victim. But, since this isn’t a cliché horror story, instead of wanting to take over the world, it just wanted to eat all world citizens. No one even saw it coming.

By David and Abbey

He got so sick he thought he was going to throw up. So he went to the doctor. So the blob stopped eating people and he died.

I got an eerie feeling when I heard ...

By Katie and Raul

Then when more zombies came, the people grabbed their best weapons, but it wasn’t enough. There weren’t people to fight the zombies. The people tried very hard, but still some of them suffered. Then some people died. Some of the survivors started to run and ended up going into a house. They went upstairs...

Eleanor, Bubulina, Caroline

...the killer monster getting lost in a strange land. It was wandering up and down the streets, and when it blinked, it only shut four of its eight eyes. It was all black, wearing a purple cape. It ran into four people, and swallowed all of them whole. I ran into my house, locking my door and barricading myself in the bathroom.

Katie, Adilene, Maggie

Berenice, Sarah, and Grace

He rushed to the hospital and the doctor gave him a cast. When I was at the hospital someone came into my room and told me to not steal candy again. I had to give all my candy back. I will never steal again. I learned to always ask before I take something.

... my big sister jumped out, shouting, "Boo!" She was wearing a Michael Myers mask and scary witch socks. "Ahhh!" I screamed. "Don't do that." "Now I have to get her back," I thought. Planning the perfect prank, I almost scared myself. I set up buckets full of cold water, bowls filled with peeled grapes and cold, wet, string noodles. Now I just had to wait for the perfect moment to attack.

I heard her walk in. I was ready to put my prank into play. What seemed forever to get into place, I decided to go check where she was. She was nowhere to be found. I went back to waiting. I heard the door open. Again, no one was there. The TV turned blank, nothing but static. I heard a voice. Afraid, I kept looking at the TV to see what would happen. Suddenly all doors, windows, drawers flew open.

I screamed and dropped the bucket of water and grapes. I heard echoes filling the room, and I heard the ghost. "I'm a ghost," said the voice. I yelled and my arms flew up. I backed into a corner and kept screaming. Suddenly everything stopped, and my sister jumped in the door. "Got you!" she yelled. I jumped and yelled at her as I laughed. It was her the whole time.
