Fiction:

Guess Who I Met!

BLACK EYED PEAS, BY: JACKY ROMAN

I was so excited because I was going to meet my favorite group called Black Eyed Peas. I went to my seat but they weren't on stage yet. I got out of my seat and went to walk around. I accidentally bumped into them.

"Sorry," I exclaimed.

"It's okay, what's your name?" one of them asked.

"Jacky Roman," I replied.

"Nice to meet you, Jacky," said another.

"Hope you enjoy our concert," said one of them.

"We're late so we better hurry!" exclaimed the girl in the group.

They left and I went back into my seat. Next thing I knew they were on stage singing my favorite song. At the end of the concert they gave me an autographed picture of them. I went home very tired but excited.

Sammy Sosa, By: Antonio DeLaCruz

I saw Sammy Sosa on television for two months. He played on the team with the Cubs and they won. He likes baseball and hits many home runs which helps the Cubs win. I was very happy to talk to Sammy Sosa.

Why I Love Atlanta, By: Carly Hope

On my summer vacation I got to go to Atlanta, Georgia to attend my cousin's wedding. When the day of my cousin's wedding came I discovered that I was related to Chingy because my cousin's wife is his sister. I almost didn't recognize him in his tuxedo because he usually wears baggy pants, gym shoes, and a T-shirt.

At the reception I finally got to talk to him. I said, “How do you like being a rapper?”

He replied, “I really enjoy it a lot and I really am blessed to get to have this opportunity to do what I love for a living.”

“What do you most enjoy about being a rapper?”

“I enjoy all the fans and their letters because they tell me about how they feel about my music.”

“What do you miss about your old life?”

“I miss hanging out with friends and family, getting to play basketball, and having a day off. But it’s worth it.”

Then he asked me to dance and we exchanged phone numbers. He said he would call me when he is in Chicago this fall.

CHINGY, By: Danielle Steele

One day when I was going to the stadium, I saw a limousine with the name CHINGY at the end. After the show, I went backstage to see him. He had on long pants with a ST. LOUIS cap and a CHINGY jersey. I asked him “how did it feel to be rich?” He said “it isn’t that great, but it feels good.” I said ‘OK.’ Then he told me about his life. I told him about myself. I asked him if he could give me a ride home. When he took me home, he gave me some cd’s to pass out for him. When he left I felt happy that I got to meet him in person. I would to meet him again. I would love to see his house.

CHINGY, By: Iris Crawford

I saw Chingy on BET and I went to the House of Blues to see him sing. We were having a good time because we had bought his tickets early. We met him after the concert and he asked how I was doing. I responded that I was just chillin at the Holiday Inn. I then asked him if he would take a picture with my friend and I. He replied, "O fo' sho' just stand right thur!"

Chingy, By: Miguel Monroy

Last night when I went to the Chingy concert, I had an awesome time. It was very loud. Chingy sang most of his hit songs. He had a lot of guys with him. Most of the guys were rappers like Ludacris, Jermaine Dupri, and Snoop Dogg.

When I went outside the Rivera, it was really crowded. It was 12:30 at night and I saw him walking to his bus. So I ran towards him and asked for his autograph. He asked where he should sign it and I told him, “Right thurr!” Then he asked me to ride on the bus with him. We were watching 8 Mile and we listened to some rap music. Then we started talking about his tour and what other cities he was going to go play. It was really fun hanging out with Chingy.

After that, they dropped me at my house and gave me some tickets for another concert. He also told me where to contact him. I also took a picture of him, so everyone would believe that I really did meet Chingy.

The Time I Met Bill Cosby, By: Jasmine Anderson

Last summer I met Bill Cosby in Florida on my vacation. I was on my way to the beach and I saw Bill Cosby going to the set of his new television show. I ran up to him and I asked him for his autograph. He gave me his autograph and then I asked him, "Can I go on the set with you?" He said "yes," and I went on the set. I met his family. They were nice and funny just like Bill Cosby. They took my family and I out to dinner. After that, Bill Cosby took my family and I home. Then we thanked him and said, "Good bye." I felt happy when I met Bill Cosby in Florida because he is the funniest guy in the world.

"Bounce With Me," By: Johnesha Jones

Once I went to a concert. Guess who I met? LiL Bow Wow! He was singing "Bounce With Me." After the concert, he said "you look nice," and I said, "you look nice too." Then he said, "how are you doing?" I said, "I am doing fine."

So we went to Six Flags with my friends Shonquil, Adrienne, Danielle, Shonesha, Meliyah, and Alexandria. We had fun and Shonquil fainted in front of him. Then LiL Bow Wow bought us something to eat. Then we talked about his video "Let's Get Down." When we got finished eating we bought a glow stick because it was dark. Then we got on seven more rides and his limo driver took us home.

Then I said, "tell us when you make your new video". He said, "okay, you all can be in it."

Guess who I met? By: Beatriz Mejia

I met Thalia in her house last year. She had a party and she invited me. She is tall, she has long brown curly hair and brown eyes with light skin. She told me she was glad that she met me and I told her that I was glad too because she is one of my favorite singers. After that she invited me to go to the movies and to choose whatever movie I wanted. I told her that maybe if she has a concert I'll go see her and she told me that she would like to know me better and to be good friends. She took me home and met my family and left. I felt so happy I met her because she was nice to me.

Selena Is an Artist, By: Maria Estrada

Selena was an artist. I saw her in the park. She was singing. She was with her parents. She was crying. I was sad because I saw her crying. Her parents were happy because she was an artist. She stopped crying and began singing. The people started to listen to her while she was singing to herself. Selena began dancing with her music.

NAPOLEON AND ME, By: Ramiro Robles

I saw Napoleon in the battlefield in France. Napoleon's army was fighting the English. I was traveling while the battle was happening. Napoleon was stubby and smelly. His hair color was black and had brown eyes.

He said, "Would you help me with my problem?" "What is your problem." I said. He responded, "I need to find a way to prevent food from spoiling because I am losing more men of food poisoning than in the battle fields." I replied, " Yes."

So I helped him find away to keep food from spoiling. I solved his problem by putting food in a can then closing it and then heating it. This method prevented germs from coming in and spoiling the food. "Thank you!" Napoleon shouted. While I was talking to Napoleon, I felt that I was happy because he gave me a lot of money.

MEETING THE BEST, By: Torkwase Burts

If I met Chingy I would be really excited, and I'll ask him to throw me a party with many celebrities if he can.

I will see Chingy while I'm going to McDonalds by Foster Street. At the time I was just laughing and talking to my friend, when he pulled up in a limousine with Ludacris. Chingy happened to be there just to visit around instead of in rich neighborhoods. Chingy looked really nice with name brand clothes and shoes on. I said to Chingy, "Is that you Chingy?!!" Chingy said to me, "yeah this Chingy shorty." I got really excited and I made him laugh and smile. I asked him does he want to chill in McDonalds with me for a little bit. Chingy said it sounded cool to him, so we went inside the restaurant. The situation ended by us being done with our McDonalds meals and our conversation. I felt that he had a really nice smile and maybe I'll see him again one day.

The Rock, By: Remi Eludinni

I met The Rock at the arena. He won a match against Shaniqua. I asked him for an autograph and he said, "yes". After I went to the arena, he saw me walk to the pizza place. He went in too. I said thank you for the autograph and he said, "your welcome." I got my pizza and I sat down and ate my pizza. He said goodbye, and he left because he had to go to the arena. I ate my pizza, then I left to go home. The next day he called me and said he lost a match.

ALL ABOUT MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., AND ME,

By: Stephanie Nichols

This is a story about Martin Luther King, Jr., and me meeting him. I met Martin Luther King on a school bus. On the bus he was talking to some people about picking up his cousin. I happened to be there on my way to school. Martin Luther King was wearing a suit and a coat with boots. I was wearing a red dress with hearts on it, and I was wearing heels. Martin Luther King was telling me about his life and his job. He said, "Hey how are you doing in school?" I said, "Fine." After we talked, he got off the bus and looked back. He saw me still on the bus and came back on to ask me for dinner. I said, "Yes". Then we became best friends. We went to dinner at the Country Buffet. He ate a burger with fries and I ate a salad with French dressing. Then we had desert and cheesecake with strawberries. During dinner we went to dance on the dance floor. Before we went outside he paid the bill. Then we went home in a limousine. When we got to my house we hugged each other. We were still talking about dinner and how nice I looked. I felt like it was a dream to have met Martin Luther King.

HARRIET TUBMAN AND THE ORPHANS, By: Maricela Hernandez

It was September 11, 2001 when I saw Harriet Tubman on the Ohio Airport at that time the twin towers had collapsed in NY. She and I happened to be at the airport to go to NY. Her skin and hair looked black with dark brown eyes. She said she was going to NY to help the orphans. I said, "that is good she is helping orphans. One day they'll thank you with a surprise, and they'll admire you just like me." She was so happy that she started to cry. At the same time we said, "our plane is coming." Our conversation ended when some one called her and said she has to cancel her trip to NY and she said, "I have to go back." And before she left she gave me a picture of her and her signature. I felt so happy that she gave me a picture of her and her signature.

Lil Bow Wow, By: Maritza Ochoa

I saw Lil Bow Wow when he was going to do a music video, and my friend was going to be in the video; that was last year. My friend told me to go with her to practice for the video. Lil Bow Wow was there because he was making the video; I was there because my friend was going to be in the video, and she told me to go with her.

Lil Bow Wow was wearing braids in his hair, and he had on an Ecko shirt and jeans. He wanted to know if I was a part of the group of people who were going to dance in the video. I told him that I wasn't a part of the video, but my friend was. Bow Wow asked me what my name was and I told him that my name is Maritza. We were talking about what we like to do for fun, but then he had to go practice for the video.

When they finished practicing, Bow Wow asked my friend and me if we wanted to go with him to see a movie; of course we said "yes." After seeing the movie he took us to eat dinner. We were talking about how much we enjoy his music. He asked us for our phone numbers, so that he could call us and we could all go out sometime. After dinner he took us home. I was so happy to meet Bow Wow; I wasn't expecting to get to meet him, so I was very surprised.

Two days later Bow Wow called me:

"Hey, Maritza," he said. "How are you?"

I said, "I am okay. What about you?"

"I am okay too. What are you doing?"

"I'm talking to you and listening to the radio. What about you?"

"I am about to go out, that's why I called. I wanted to know if you want to go with me to see how the video came out," said Bow Wow. "I already called your friend, and she is coming with us."

"Okay, I'll see you.

"I'll come get you in a half hour."

"Alright then, later!"

Bow Wow picked me up first, and then we went to get my friend. We watched the video; it was cool. After that we went to rent some movies. We went to my friend's house to watch the movies, and we ordered some pizza. After the movies we talked about what we wanted to do on Saturday and we started to make plans. Bow Wow took me back to my house. He called me on Friday to make sure we were still going out on Saturday.

I told him, "I have a party, it is going to be my friend's birthday."

He said, "Okay. Do you want to go shopping today?"

I told him, "Why? I already have my things for the party."

He said, "You better get ready, we are going shopping. And call your friend too."

I called my friend and told her to get ready, and that we were going shopping. We went shopping and had a good time. Then, on Saturday when we went to the party, everybody was like, "Oh my god, it's Bow Wow!" We had a good time.

Sammy Sosa, By: Martin De La Cruz

I like to watch the television to see the Cubs and Sammy Sosa. Sammy Sosa hit one homerun to win the World Series. Sammy Sosa and the team won the World Series.

I want to see Sammy Sosa. I want to talk to him. I want to ask how many homeruns he hit.

Baseball is my favorite game. I want to play baseball on his team.

How I Met Michael Jordan, By: Deandre Knight

This story is about a five-year-old boy. Guess what his name was? His name was DeAndre; yup it was me. It was the day before my birthday and it was time for me to go to bed. For a little while I couldn't sleep finally I drifted to sleep and had a weird dream that went something like this... Michael Jordan had made the game winning shot and all the reporters were trying to meet and talk with him. It was obvious he didn't want to be bothered but they just wouldn't leave him alone.

I was sitting in the stands not noticing that Michael Jordan was walking towards me. Then a few seconds later there he was, looking down on me. He was sweating, sweating so much his head was shining. I didn't say anything though because he did win the game, didn't he? He asked me if my name was DeAndre and I said yes. What happened next was so unbelievably stupid, he wished me a happy birthday and just walked away. Starting to disappear I called his name, but I woke up because my dad was shaking me like crazy telling me to get up and come downstairs because he had a surprise for me. I asked him if it could wait because it was 11:59 am. Do you know what he said? He said he knew that and if I didn't get up that I would miss my birthday present. I got out of bed and my dad had this funny smirk on his face which made me suspicious. I don't know what but something seemed funny. I was walking down the stairs when I heard an unfamiliar laugh. I had asked my dad who was downstairs and he told me to go and find out. He said that I would be really surprised.

When we got downstairs, guess who was sitting on my couch? Michael Jordan!!!

The Day I Met Sammy Sosa, By: Ramiro Lugarda

I saw Sammy Sosa in the Wrigley Field playing against the Yankees. When he made a home run, he threw the ball just over my head and I caught it. After they finished playing the game, we met each other outside on the field. My family and I were waiting for the bus and he came out. He looked different and I asked him if I could get a picture of him with his girlfriend. My mom asked Sammy Sosa and his girlfriend if they would come to our house to eat. She asked him because she was happy they won and she wanted to celebrate. They did come and we ordered pepperoni and cheese pizza. That was about two years ago that we met and I was four or five years old. It was so amazing because we were in Wisconsin and it doesn't happen to everyone. I remember it well because my mom still has pictures of it that she still shows me often.

Meeting Bow Wow, By: Shonquil Minors

Bow Wow is one of the cutest boys I've ever seen. He is 16 years old and he was born in Columbus, Ohio. I would love to meet him again sometime soon or have a front row seat at one of his concerts.

You could always find him in the studio. I remember the time when I went to go see him in the studio. My uncle works in the studio and I just happened to go the day Bow Wow was coming. It was the happiest day of my life.

He was so cute. He said, "Hi, my name is Bow Wow." I said, "I know. My name is Shonquil and it is very nice to meet you." I told him that he was really cute and he said, "thanks and you are yourself." I said, "thanks." Then he went to pick a beat for his song, and I heard him rap. That was pretty much it. I said, "I hope I will see you again," and he said, "I hope I'll see you again also!"

At The Mall, By: Adrienne Sain

Once upon a time I was in the car with my cousin Tashanda and we were riding down the street. We got out the car, went into the mall and guess who I met! Bow Wow. We walked and talked. He bought me and him some food and an outfit alike. Our outfit was a Shago hoody and some sweats and some red and white air force. We exchanged numbers and talked on the phone. When we finally got off the phone, we went to a concert. We had a good time.

Selena, By: Liliana Ochoa

I met Selena in a concert at midnight. She was giving out autographs to the people. It was her concert and I had gone to see her. I wanted to talk to her. She was wearing red pants and a red blouse. She had black hair and light skin. I thought she was pretty. She told me she was glad to see me and that she wanted to meet my family. After her concert, she invited me to a restaurant where we ate Mexican food. She was talking about her life and I told her about my life, too. She told me, how she met her husband. She also told me what her house looks like. I told her that I have one brother and four sisters. I also told her that I like playing soccer and going to parties. She then took me home and met my family. I felt happy that I talked to her.

Story about Selena, By: Latrice Anderson

The first time I met Selena, the best singer in the world, it was because I won a contest at a radio station. When I saw Selena it was during my summer vacation. I saw Selena outside singing. While she was singing she was waiting for me and everybody was screaming and shouting. I was there because I won a contest to see her, and she was there because of me. Selena looked very pretty. She had on blue jeans with high heels and make up. Selena said “hello” to me and I said “hello” back to her. After that we went to a Mexican restaurant. While we were eating we were talking about school, church, and boys we like. Later, we went to the movies. When I was talking to Selena, I felt so happy because I never met any one famous.

After all that fun we had she said, “Let’s go get some ice cream.” When we left the ice cream shop she took me home.

The next day she called me and asked me, “Would you like to go the Bahamas with me?”

I said, “Yes, okay.”

My mom said it was okay. We got on a plane, and we left for the Bahamas. When we were there we unpacked, then we went to eat and shop. The next day we went in the swimming pool and the jacuzzi. Selena said, “Would you like to stay here one more week?” I called my mom to ask her she said “yes.”

The next day we left to get on the plane. When we left on the plane all we did was talk. I went home and went to bed.

I met Michael Jordan, By: Salvador Suarez

If I met Michael Jordan at the play ground at school he would show me how to do tricks in basketball. Some of his tricks are dribble between his legs and how to shoot from half court. He would tell me to study in school and to listen to the teacher. He would also tell me to take care of my family and myself. He would also to come every Monday to tutoring. I would tell Michael Jordan that I like watching him play basketball. I would like to be like Michael Jordan when I get older I would be wearing some shorts and t-shirt saying Michael Jordan. Michael Jordan would be dressed in shorts and his basketball jersey. His jersey will be black and red I was alone practicing basketball so one saw us talking. My friend didn't believe me when I saw Michael Jordan.

Michael Jackson, By: Erick Villasenor

When I was 9 years old I had a big glass china cabinet full of plates, spoons, cups and pictures of Michael Jackson. When I was about 10 years old Michael Jackson was coming to the Allstate arena I was astonished when I heard that, I really wanted to go to his concert but I didn't have money to buy the tickets it was so expensive. I started working at my dad's job until I had collected enough money to buy the ticket. Finally the day, I was ready to go. I took a camera and went dressed like him including the sparkly glove he always wears on his left hand. I went with my uncle to the concert. When we got there the line to get in was so long it stretched from the door to the end of the block. Finally we went in and almost all the seats were full.

There were only two seats left and they were for my uncle and I, however we saw two more people walking toward our seats so we raced to the seats and we got there first so the other people had to leave the stadium. The show finally began, I was so happy because it was my first time seeing Michael Jackson in person. So close I could almost touch him. I was in the 3rd row. He started first with his song "rock my world" Then he sang the song "butterflies" after he sang lots of other songs, but the one that I liked the most was the last one "Privacy". He took his black hat and his glove out of a black suit case and started dancing, he even did the moon walk. Finally the show was over and I walked toward his limo and said, "Could I please have your autograph Mr Jackson?" He said alright and signed my sparkly glove. I went home very happy because my dream had come true.

Chingy, By: Krystal Waters

I met him at the studio at Los Angeles and I asked him what was his favorite song that he made, I met him there, he had a lot of jewelry. Hi what is your name hello my name is Krystal, we talked for a while we both like to ride in cars, like a Lexus truck with spinning wheels, when he had to sing when he had to go on access granted, happy so excited that I met him

In 5 weeks it will be done. she talked to me about the racing car and we walked to the food court.

Bow Wow, By: Fernando Manrra

I can't believe I was in a Bow Wow concert! I was walking to my seat, then the security guard said that I could go back stage. I felt awesome. When I got back stage he was there waiting. He was wearing all black clothes.

He said, "What up, dog!"

"Peace to the brothers," I said.

I got his autograph. "See you next time," he said. Then I left to see the concert. I felt fabulous.

Beyonce, By: Kassandra Chavez

When I meet Beyonce. I am going to ask her to come to my school. We will have a party and dance. I'll ask her to sing to the whole school. I will ask her to call Sean Paul and sing with her. I will dance their song. I'll ask her to be my teacher. If she could teach my math. If she have to go I will go with her and be her partner. I will sing with her and be a famous singer.

Lil' Bow Wow, by Andrew Anderson

One summer day in New York, I met Lil' Bow Wow! This is how it happened. I was rapping in my studio. Lil' Bow Wow came to my house, because he wanted me to rap with him. He was wearing some baby blue pants and an orange Fubu shirt.

He said, "Hi! What's your name? How are your raps going?"

I said, "Hi! How are you doing today? Where do you live? Where do you work? Who do you live with?"

He asked, “Are you going in my rapping studio? What are you going to do this weekend? Can I come over to your house?”

We were practicing rapping on my stereo, and we had some tea. We sat down and talked about our rapping, and how we are doing in rapping, and then he ate dinner with my family. He left and we said goodbye, and I gave him some of my cookies. I felt great and I was surprised that I saw Lil’ Bow Wow.

The Day I Saw Bill Cosby, By: Esosa Iguodala

I was going trick or treating and I saw Bill Cosby. He was dressed up like a clown and I was dressed up like a princess. I was just about to ring a doorbell when I saw him walking down the street. I screamed after him and called out his name. He was shocked and so was I. I asked him what he was like when he was my age. He told me what he like when he was my age. He said “You should stay in school and keep on learning.” I was so surprised. He gave me some candy and keep on trick or treating.

Guess Who I Met, By: Marcus Dean

One day I was sitting around watching TV. The Cubs were playing the Marlins. There was 1 out, 2 people on base. Sammy Sosa was up. He had 2 strikes and a foul. The pitcher pitched then Sammy Sosa hit a home run. Then he tied the game up 8 to 8. But then the Marlins hit a home run 8 to 9. After the Marlins had got 3 out their favorite pitcher came up. First, he strikes out. Then, Sammy Sosa struck out. Then, Moises Alou struck out. Then the Marlins won.

Sammy Sosa, By: Raul Mejia

On Saturday my cousin, friends, and I went to see the game in Wrigley Field, and Sammy Sosa was up to bat first. He batted and ran to second base. Then Alou was up next and ran to second base. The third batter batted and ran to first. The bases were loaded. The fourth batter hit a homerun and I caught it. The Marlins were in trouble, the Cubs were winning 4 to 0. Then the pitcher struck out the next three batters. Then the Marlins first batter hit a homerun but the Cubs pitcher struck out the next two batters. The Marlins scored 4 more runs and then they were 4 to 5, and the Cubs were losing. Sammy hit a home run and my cousin almost got it but dropped it and I reached for it and caught it in the sixth inning. The Cubs were winning 8 to 6, however at the end of the game the Marlins beat the Cubs 9 to 8. I got to see Sammy Sosa, he looked tall and his hands were very strong.

He asked me how did I catch the two baseballs in one game. And he asked me what is my favorite sport and what is my favorite team and he asked the same thing to my cousin and friend. I responded by saying that my favorite sports are soccer and baseball, and told him that my favorite team was the Cubs. After, I asked him if he would sign the two balls that I caught. Also I asked if he wanted to come to dinner tomorrow and he said yes and he asked if we wanted a ride home. He came to dinner and we ate dinner all together. The day was over, and I went to sleep. I was dreaming how luck I was to meet Sammy and have dinner with him.

The Day I Met Selena, By: Carla Salazar

The day I met Selena, I was in a restaurant. I was eating when I looked up and saw her. She said to me, "Do you want to eat with me please?" I said yes. She then told me everything about her life. She said, "I have to go. I have a concert I'm going to sing at, do you want to go?" I said, "Yes thank you." When I got there she was singing a beautiful song. I had fun with her, but I had to go. Before I left I said, "Thank you so much."

Chingy, By: Gabino Lugarda

Guess who I met at the carnival? I saw Chingy singing. He was singing and dancing he was wearing a St. Louis Hat and jacket. He finally got to his last song and last week I won some back stage passes to see him so we went back stage I saw him and he told me if wanted to be on his new poster I was impressed I didn't know what to say then I told him yes. Then I when home to get some sleep for the next day he came and pick me up. We finally arrived at the place where we were going to take the pictures. Then we took the pictures and he invited me to a party were I saw him for the last time. I felt famous because for the next day everybody from my school was going to think that I am cool.

El Dia Que Conosi a Thalia, By: Veronica Estrada

Yo conosi a Thalia y ella me pregunto que si me gustaria cantar. Luego nos encontramos en un concierto. Ella me dijo que si queria que nos tomaramos una foto. Ella pregunto que si me gustaba como cantaba en los conciertos y yo le dije que si me gustaba. Me dio gusto ver la en persona.

The Day I Met Thalia, By: Veronica Estrada

I met Thalia and she asked me if I would like to sing. Later we met at a concert. She asked me if I wanted to take a picture with her. She asked me if I liked the way she sang in the concerts and I told her that I did like it. It made me happy to see her in person.

When I Went to the Basketball Game, by John Henry Nichols

I saw Michael Jordan at a basketball game. I was watching the game at the stadium. He was sweating and had on a jersey and he was winning so far. Then he was on his break time then he said to me, "hello little kid." Then I said, "can I have your autograph." He signed my notebook that I had in my pocket. Then Michael Jordan won the game.
